GUIDELINES FOR COURSE PROPOSALS AND PROGRAMME INFORMATION

Ljubljana Summer School (LSS) is a 3-week internationally renowned programme launched in year 2000, which is organized by and held at the School of Economics and Business, University of Ljubljana. In July 2019, we celebrated our 20th anniversary with alumni from the first generation and more than 400 participants from all over the world took part in 25 courses. In 2020, we were forced to restructure and take the programme online and it turned out to be a great new learning experience for everyone involved.

We continue to write our story by creating memorable learning experiences and connections, either at the “meeting point of East and West” or online and we invite you to be part of it!

PROGRAMME INFORMATION

Ljubljana Summer School Take the Best from East and West

5 – 23 July 2021

It is expected that the course leader is present in Ljubljana throughout the 3-week programme, unless the course is co-taught with a colleague and lectures are divided. It is not possible to deliver a course in a shorter period. In total, each course involves 30-contact hours + additional individual & group work for students outside the classroom.

The number of enrolled students per course ranges from 15 to 30. In case of higher interest from students, we will individually discuss the maximum number of enrolments with the course leader(s).

Daily time slot for each course is set by the programme organizer once the courses for the programme are selected. Each course is assigned only one time slot and it stays the same for all lecture days. Students can register for two different courses at the programme; therefore the daily schedule cannot be changed once set.

All course leaders will gain access to Canvas (a web-based learning management system used by educators and students to access and manage online course learning materials and communicate about skill development and learning achievement). Face-to-face lectures will be held in classrooms at the School of Economics and Business (the appropriate classroom type will be confirmed with each course leader).

Please note that participants pay the tuition fee which includes all course materials, therefore they will not bear any additional costs with buying books or online study cases. If you plan to use any study cases or software that we should pre-order, please let us know in advance.

All students who want to receive the Transcript of records (with ECTS) must pass the final examination (final grading scale provided in the course syllabus template). The grade composition is determined by each course leader in the course syllabus. The evaluation criteria need to be further explained to students at the first lecture. Final grading and the final grade announcement is the sole responsibility of the course leaders. All final grades must be submitted to the programme organizer by 27 July the latest.

STUDENTS ATTENDING THE PROGRAMME

The programme is open to undergraduate (Bachelor) and graduate (Master) students, as well as to recent graduates/young professionals who wish to gain skills in specific areas. We welcome students from University of Ljubljana and partner and non-partner institutions worldwide. We strive to keep the programme and the groups in classrooms international and culturally diverse.

A very detailed course syllabus is very important to them as the majority has to pre-approve the selected courses at their home institutions. Please note that Bachelor students in their final year might have to apply for a Master course (depending on the programme at their home institution).

A Certificate of Attendance is issued to all students who take full part in the programme. A Transcript of records is issued to students who complete all course obligations and take part in the final examination. Both certificates are prepared and issued by the programme organizer.

COURSE PROPOSALS AND SELECTION CRITERIA

COURSE PROPOSALS

If you have an idea for an interesting summer course and you want to teach in an international classroom by using interactive and innovative modes of teaching, you are welcome to send your application with up to 2 different course proposals. We welcome proposals for Bachelor courses (6 ECTS) and Master courses (7 ECTS). In the application form, you should specify if you are interested only in face-to-face delivery or only in online delivery. If you don't have a specific preference, you will be able to upload both templates.

Each lecturer is responsible for the course design and the content itself. All courses are taught in English. If you wish to deliver the course in cooperation with a colleague, you are responsible for the coordination within the course. Students expect the same level of teaching throughout the course, so the overall coordination between the co-lecturers is very important. Guest speakers are highly valued as well.

Supporting documents to be uploaded in the application form:

- ☀ Academic CV (in case of co-teaching, the Academic CV of the co-lecturer should be uploaded as well)
- ☀ Course syllabus(es) in the provided templates

AFTER SELECTION

During the application period (from mid-January to June) all selected courses will be offered and marketed within the 2021 Ljubljana Summer School programme. The programme organizer is responsible for the promotion of the programme as a whole and for reaching out to the target groups for all courses. We offer discounts for early bird applications and group discounts for some Ljubljana Summer School partner universities.

It is also highly recommended that the course leaders themselves promote their courses at their universities and through their own international networks.

As soon as the minimum number of enrolments per course (15 for face-to-face, 10 for online) is reached, we will send a final confirmation to you and to the applicants. If the number of applicants is below minimum by the end of April, the offered course might have to be cancelled. It is of high importance to assign a substitute course leader in case of illness or other higher force.

Only after we send a final confirmation that your course will be held, you can book your flights and we can start arranging accommodation (face-to-face delivery).
